Special Meeting
 Held in Duck Lake on 17th Jan 1914.
 Members present - Reeve Craig, Couns Gervais, Rajot, Cross & Bell.

Whereas it is deemed advisable by this Council in the best interests both of this R.M. also the travelling public, to keep two hotels opened in Duck Lake &

Whereas in the opinion of the Council the proprietor of the King's Hotel has been unfairly prosecuted with the intention of suspending his license,

Therefore it has been moved by

Coun. Pajot that Rev. Craig be appointed delegate to the Attorney General's Department to express the views of this Council. Carried Moved by Rev. Craig that payment of Diem & mileage due councillors for this meeting, be paid ^{only} at next regular meeting. Car.

Moved by Coun. Bell that matter of delegate's expenses be left over till next regular meeting in order that Couns. Adams & Keenan be given an opportunity to vote ^{or} discuss the matter.

And the meeting adjourned on a motion of Coun. Cross. Car.
